EUROPE.

THE SITUATION STILL MORE REASSURING.

A Proposition to Withdraw from Constantinople---Basis of the Arrangement to be Submitted to the Czar---Negotiations Becoming More Precise.

LONDON, May 7.—The Times' Pera correspondent has reason to believe that the Turks will raise a series of fresh difficulties concerning the fortresses based on the interpretation of the San Stefano treaty.

A Times' Bucharest despatch reports that five hundred insurgent prisoners and sixty wounded Russians arrived at the Danube from South of the Balkans. Some of the Russians state that the Insurgents have had several successes.

Supplies are being hurried southward.

A Russian correspondent writes from Cracow, that the Russian government is said to owe the company victualling the army 20,000,000 roubles. The company must suspend unless paid immediately.

A Times' despatch from Vienna, says that the Insurgents seem to have entirely disappeared from the Maritza valley. It is unknown whether they have been driven back, or are merely concentrating to resist large Russian reinforcements.

The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, says that the main points now under negotiation are the limits of Bulgaria, and the proposed modifications in Asia Minor, England objects to the extension of Bulgaria to the Ægean Sea, and France warmly supports her. Russia proposed to make important concessions to Austria, but Count Andrassy replied that he must defer any decision until a meeting of the Congress.

The famine in northeast Russia, is increasing.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 7.—The Journal De St. Petersburg, says: The proper interpretation to give to Count Schouvaloff's visit to this city, is that Anglo-Russian negotiations have entered a more precise phase.

LONDON, May 7.—Twelve hundred Martini Henri Rifles have been ordered to be shipped to Malta immediately, probably for the Indian contingent.

It is stated that a national convention will be called in London to protest against war, should the Government take further measures likely, in the opinion of the Liberals to lead to war.

The statements of Sir Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in the House of Commons, last evening, are regarded as re-assuring. It is also thought that the visit of Count Schouvaloff, the Russian Ambassador, at London to St. Petersburg, cannot be otherwise than helpful to the cause of peace as he can explain the temper and views of the English Government, and people more effectively than could be done by correspondence.

The change in the public opinion of Russia in a peaceful direction is said to be very marked, and to be the result of the recognition of serious consequences, that would inevitably result from a war. The Czar is personally directing negotiations with the assistance of Baron Jomini. The Czar's predilections are entirely in favor of peace.

HAMBURG, May 7.—A London despatch says the basis of the arrangement which the powers desire to submit to the Czar has been agreed upon. The arrangement is separated into five divisions. The first proposes that the two regions of Bulgaria, situated north of the Balkans shall be conceded to Russia, and stipulates that the Southern portion of Bulgaria shall remain, to a great extent, under the authority of the Sultan; the second relates solely to the Asiatic compensation which it is proposed shall be reduced to a mimimum; the third relates to the straits question, and will be arranged hereafter; the fourth demands a definitive settlement of the war indemnity; under the fifth division, it is proposed that both Thessaly and Epirus shall be accorded the right of self government, thus securing for them the protection of Europe and their National Independence.

LONDON, May 7.—It seems to be the general impression that Prince Gortchakoff will not be able to resume the Chancellorship.

The present endeavors are stated to be directed to securing such an understanding between England and Russia as permit the assembling of the Congress without the certainty or failure. To this end direct communications are passing between the two Governments with a view of ascertaining what modifications in Europe and Asia would render the San Stefano treaty acceptable. Without such an understanding there will be no Congress.

The Turkish, the most important army corps in front of Constantinople, is commanded by an Englishman, Baker Pasha.

Captain Manthorpe, an Englishman, who is second in command of the Turkish fleet, has just received a decoration from the Sultan.

The statement in a special despatch from Alexandria, in yesterday's Daily News, that Admiral Hornby's fleet is expected at Port Said, is obviously premature.

The Manchester Guardian's London correspondent says, the attempts to create a scare about the Russian privateers, is done to affect the Underwriters, who continue willing to take any quantity of risks on the British hulls at from 7 to 10 shillings.

A Reuter's despatch from Constantinople announces that General Todleben is about to retire to the lines of Tchataldja, leaving a small force at San Stefano. The Russians offer to fall back behind a straight line drawn between Dedeagatch and Adrianople, if the British fleet will withdraw at the same time.

Forty-Fifth Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—SENATE.—Dorsey, of Arkansas, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported back the postoffice appropriation bill, with sundry amendments. Placed on the calendar.

He also reported from the same committee the amendment submitted on Thursday last by Maxey, of Texas, from the Committee on Postoffices and Post-roads, granting a subsidy for the Brazilian mail steamship service, without recommendation, and said he reported it back that the Committee on Post-offices and Post-roads might submit it with the post-office appropriation bill when the Senate should take up that bill.

The Committee on Appropriations had not formally expressed any opinion as to it; certainly not adverse to it.

Edmunds, of Vermont, reserved all points of order as to amendment.

HOUSE.—The bill to establish a permanent form of government for the District of Columbia was debated, and passed.

The tariff bill was taken up in committee of the Whole. Banks, of Massachusetts, made a speech against it. The motion to go into committee on the bill had only a majority of one, although five anti tariff men voted in the affirmative.

SENATE.—The House bill forbidding the further destruction of legal tenders was read a second time, by vote of 33 to 25, but the morning hour expiring Senate resumed routine matters.

The Pension bill passed.

The committee on Commerce agreed to report the concurrent resolution modifying the treaty, allowing unrestricted Chinese immigration, and directing the President to open negotiations with Great Britain and China on this subject.

THE CONDEMNED CRIMINALS

Results of an Interview.

(Special telegram to the News.)

GOLDSBORO, May 7.

A NEWS reporter visited the murderers of Worley and wife this afternoon. Noah Cherry said: "I am not guilty; I am going to suffer death for the sins committed before the murder; I did not have a fair trial; I am sixty-four years old, and have three children, whom I hope to meet in heaven The NEWS and other papers helped to convict me, but I thank you, Captain, for coming to see me. Rev. Mr. Larmour talked and prayed with us to-day. I pray every moment. Sometimes I think the Governor will reprieve me; God only knows."

Harris Atkinson said: "I am going to be hung; it is wrong; I am not guilty; on the scaffold I want to talk to the people a long time. I am thirty-eight years old, and have a wife and six children; I want to see and bid them goodbye. I did not have a fair trial."

Harris is very obstinate, and not disposed to talk freely.

Bob Thompson seems penitent. He said: "I am going to die soon; I hope to go to heaven. I am not guilty." He was once a slave of Dr. Thompson, and lived in Wake. His wife is dead. He has three children living.

The prisoners seem to realize their situation. Each thanked their counsel for the able defence made for them. Wassom, who appeared for Cherry, says: "I believe them to be guilty, and I have told them there was no hope."

The execution will certainly take place on the 14th of June. No sympathy, whatever, is expressed for the guilty wretches.

Jerry Cox was released on Saturday night.

The Great Demand for Four and a-half Per Cent. Bonds.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The New York Tribune says: The sale of the 4½ per cent. bonds by the Syndicate is now averaging $1,250,000 a day. It is stated by members of the Syndicate that the demand from all parts of the country, especially in the West, for this issue of government bonds for investment, is so great that it is difficult to keep a supply on hand to meet it. Last Thursday the June option of five million dollars was issued, and it is stated that nearly the entire amount has been disposed of. Yesterday the Syndicate subscribed for an additional five million, in anticipation of the option for July, making twenty-five million already called for under the contract of April 11, for fifty million dollars. A member of the Syndicate said yesterday that with the present average daily sales of over one million dollars, it would become necessary to call for another five million before the close of the present week, which would assuredly anticipate the August option sale of the entire $50,000,000 before July.

Chicago was drawing largely on the Syndicate for the 4½ per cent. bonds, and a brisk demand came from St. Louis, Cincinnati and other western cities The heavy sales of the 4½ per cent. bonds did not interfere with the popular loan of the 4 per centums, and Chicago was ordering the latter from New York in preference to patronizing the sub-Treasury at that city, thus saving from three to four days in the delivery of bonds. It is estimated that the sales of United States bonds of all issues, yesterday aggregated $2,250,000. of which nearly $1,300,000 were the 4½ per centums and $250,000 the 4 per centums.

Spirit of the State Press.

Wilkesboro Witness: We need just as good men in the State as we do in the church, and it becomes the duty of every lover of good government to do their very best to place them there.

Monroe Methodist: Profanity is rife everywhere. We hear it from the lips of old men and children, high and low. It meets us on the street, in the market, on the highway, in the palace coach, in the theatre, at the bar, in the hustings, in the legislative halls, and even sometimes in the sanctuary. No wonder that the land is full of bribery, injustice, fraud and murder.

Wilmington Democrat; We are in favor of primary elections. Let us have them by all means. It is the only just and fair way to know the sentiments of the people. We want all to have a clean, clear track. Let the winning animal have the purse.

Charlotte Observer: In three columns of the Raleigh papers of Sunday, Col. Paul B. Means combats Captain Shotwell's second publication, and Captain Shotwell, the NEWS says, will reply promptly. The NEWS further says that it hears, on good authority, that Judge Schenck will soon appear in pamphlet form. Thus the irrepressible conflict goes on, like a circle—without end—and the Democratic party, along with individual reputations is suffering.

Hillsboro Recorder: We think, for the vindication of American institutions so perilously jeopardized by the successful crime of Hayes; for the good name of the American government, now held up to scorn as in the hands of a ruler stained with fraud and dishonor; for the welfare of the American people, whose fortunes are at the mercy of an administration without honor, and from which all confidence is withdrawn; and in justice to the Democratic party, the work of whose renovating policy was so fatally thwarted, that no terms should be held with Mr. Hayes; that having been now proved a fraud, he should be summarily dealt with as a fraud.

Alamance Gleaner: That President Hayes is the creation of frauds is fully established. Now, what is to be done about it? It would seem that nothing to undo the foul wrong can be done; that there is no more efficient remedy than to provide against the repetition of the great crime, That an investigation will be had with the view of authoritatively laying all the facts before the people, seems quite likely, but beyond this the ablest men declare that Congress is powerless to go.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.

Correction--Science Hall--Provision for Teaching Agricultural Chemistry---Work of Building to Immediately Begin.

(Correspondence of the News.)

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, N. C., May 6, 1878.

I see in the issue of your valuable paper of this morning two verbal errors which I desire to correct. The first is the name of the preacher of the commencement sermon at the College, which is Rev. P. S. Henson, and not Hensen. The other is a more important matter. The building which has been contracted for is Science Hall and not Memorial Hall. It is proposed to offer facilities at Wake Forest College for the study of agricultural chemistry, which shall not be surpassed in the State. This building will not only be an ornament to the grounds, but will be planned with special adaptation to the study of applied chemistry and mechanics. Mr. Jacob S. Allen, the contractor, came out this morning and will go to work at once with a full complement of hands, making brick and push through the work with his well known energy. He has already contracted for a brick yard and enough wood to begin work with.

A meeting of the Board of Trustees has been called for May 23d, to decide finally on plans of building and make arrangements for enlarging the department of applied chemistry.

The corner-stone will be laid at the commencement of the College, June 13th.

It is hoped and believed that Memorial Hall will also soon be provided for by friends of the Colleges in Raleigh. It is thought that the erection of these two buildings during the present summer would put the College many years ahead of its present status. We understand that several Baptists in Raleigh, of wealth and position, are considering a proposition to erect this building.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION IN KINSTON.

Democratic Ticket Elected.

Special correspondence of The News.

KINSTON, N. C., May 6, 1878.

The election for Mayor and Commissioners for the town of Kinston, passed off quietly to-day, and resulted in the election of the entire Democratic ticket.

B. W. Canady was elected Mayor by a majority of 39, and the majority of the Commissioners, Geo. E. Miller, B. F. Nunn, W. H. Morton and Cornelius Harper, varied but a little from that of the Mayor. Both parties seem to be well organized. The "old Board" still "holds the fort."

Glances from the Burlington Hawkeye.

It is said that President Hayes had his belief in the Bible shaken a little, when he was informed that it was not written by an Ohio man.

When Hamlet said, "Seams, madam? Nay, I know not seams," he wasn't talking poetry, but had just killed a sewing machine agent in the front hall.

Every stage that goes to the Black Hills takes some woman out to her husband, and the result is there now two woman to every man in that distressed country.

It is estimated that the war in Europe would have to last 328 years in order to give every American sutler who served in our late war just one chance to sell dried peaches three for a dollar.

It is a sad thing to reflect that Tweed's moral downfall dated from the day he was elected alderman. We hope this terrible warning will not be thrown away upon the young men of Raleigh.

The fruit crop promises to be immensely large, and it is gratifying to learn, in this connection, that there are about three new kinds of bugs, and two old-fashioned worms coming out with every fruit blossom.

Secretary Evarts says "there is no aspirant for the presidency in Hayes' cabinet." Providence never does entirely desert this distracted country. It always has something to be thankful for.

You can't keep a man out of a circus. He'll get the money for a ticket if the government has to lend it to him. If it wasn't for the circus, there are some men in North Carolina that never would have had fifty cents in their lives.

Miscellaneous Telegrams.

MONROE, LA. May 7.—The election for Mayor and seven Councilmen, resulted in the election of five white Democrats, one colored man supported by both parties, and one colored Republican, and the re-election, by a majority of sixty-four, of Fred Endom, the regular Democratic nominee for Mayor.

LONDON, May 7.—From six to seven thousand cloth workers in Holmfirth, district at Huddersfield, have resolved to strike, in consequence of notice of a reduction of wages.

BOSTON, May 7.—Judge Holt issued a decree yesterday, allowing the Receivers of the Mercantile Savings Bank to pay a dividend of twenty per cent. The Savings Bank Commissioners applied for a restrictive order to the Bristol County Savings Bank of Taunton, today, permitting payment of 15 per cent of the amount of deposits during the first six months, and 15 per cent during the second six months.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., May 6.—Marshall and Cos-Organ factory was burned this morning. Loss between 25 and 40 thousand dollars.

To the Pubic.

RALEIGH, May 6, 1878.

As I did not provoke, nor originate, neither shall I seek to prolong this ill-timed, ill-advised rehearsal of ex post facto bitterness. Grateful from my heart for the generous sympathy and ready justice shown towards me by the press, and the people of North Carolina, of both political parties, I feel that I may now entrust my cause into their keeping without fear of an impartial verdict. I did not take up my pen to interfere with Judge Schenck's aspirations; my silence in 1874, when he was being opposed by a formidable opposition in our own party, shows that I would not go one step out of my way to take cognizance of his gratuitous reflections—first made when I was locked in a distant prison. Indeed, I am now suffering for my former forbearance. Had I then appealed to the public I should not have had the powerful influences and personal prestige of a presiding Judge, popularized by comparison with puppet, partizan predecessors, thrown into the scale against me. At that period, too, I might have called forth the corroborating testimony of Capt. Durham, and others, including even James Justice himself, who have since died, or removed to the far West, beyond my reach.

TAKEN AT DISADVANTAGE.

Perhaps few persons realize the great injustice done myself in dragging me before the bar of Public Opinion, to answer for semi-political, semi disciplinary events which occurred fully SEVEN YEARS ago—two of which (immediately after the transaction) were spent by me in a living grave, one thousand miles at the North, cut off from any knowledge of the outside world, as even my home-letters were nearly every one intercepted by Grant's detectives. During this period many of the better class of participants in the affair were forced to fly into exile, and, finding other homes, have never returned. Bear in mind, also, that nine-tenths of the participants were non-residents of the State—all disguised from crown to foot, and the night extremely dark. I can conscientiously declare that I did not know a soul of the entire party, and only when afterward thrown into Logan's Bastile, together with scores of the best citizens of Rutherford, (ministers, ex-members of the Legislature, Justices of the Peace, one-legged confederates, etc.,) did I learn that four or five of the raiders were friends of mine. Of these, one is dead, one is still in "parts unknown," and three have furnished letters (to be seen at my office) affirming my statements, and denouncing the fabrications of my foes.

Could I spare time and money to visit Spartanburg and Rutherford, I might obtain an armful of affidavits to the same effect. At this distance, (nearly 300 miles,) I have difficulty in communicating with parties aware of the truth, many of whom reside 20 and 30 miles from the railroad; and some of whom seem to fear they will still be liable to harrassment by "Jeffrey's" Bond and his janizzaries. Others, having never been suspected, are loth to now bring themselves into publicity, by coming forward to relieve me. I have received several anonymous letters (one from Judge Schenck's home,) giving me items, which, however, were of no use without substantiation. Indeed, I have no desire to make any allusion to Judge Schenck's private life, or acts.

FURTHER, AND EXPLICIT PROOF.

Subsequent to the publication of my last article I received a number of important documents in support of my statements. As I am assured by many friends in all parts of the State that no additional proof is needed, I shall merely produce here, a letter from a brother editor, full of gallant impulses, who no sooner heard of the RUSSELL-BOSTIC affidavits than he determined to call upon the most influential and respectable of the active participants in the raid. This gentleman is a well-to-do farmer, who was summoned to appear before the Washington Outrage Committee, shortly after Judge Schenck, but saw no reason to gratify our enemies with his testimony, pro or con. Here is the letter, which I invite the public to call and read:

SPARTANBURG, S. C., May 4, '78.

Capt. Shotwell:

Your favor received; and I was preparing to visit Mr. ——— when by good luck, he came to town. He answers six of the allegations (in the affidavits) as follows:

1st. He says you did not meet the raiders two miles out of Rutherfordton (as asserted by RUSSELL-BOSTIC) but only about one mile, or perhaps less.

2nd. That you did not bring any "axe," "rope" or "sledge hammer;" that nothing but an axe was used, and it by ——; that it was taken from the house of Bradley Dalton—with whom he has since talked about the matter.

3d. He says you did not make any speech, nor was one made that night; nor did you advise them to take out Justice, and hang him to a limb, &c., &c., (as charged by my enemies.)

4th. He says you did not lead the raiders into town; but that his brother, and ——— and ——— were the first in town, and did most of the work. (Where was Russell all this time?)

5. He says you did not "go up to Justice's steps," nor show them the door, nor say "strike here," nor ignite a box of matches, nor throw in a fire-ball. There was no fire-ball, but only a twist of paper, which burned out sooner than they wished, and left them in darkness in Justice's room.

6th. He says you did not "lead the way into the Star office," nor shout for the boys to "break it up," &c., &c.

7th. He says he does not know who ordered the raid; but that he had heard weeks before that it would be made.

He declares he can conscientiously endorse everything contained in your allegations; and that if positively necessary you can use his name, but he greatly desires you will not." * * * *

* * * * * * * *

FROM MY PRISON WALLS.

I will add merely a brief extract from a letter published by me in Gen. Johnstone Jones' Charlotte Observer, October 14, 1872—in answer to a report that I had been offered pardon if I would canvass North Carolina for Grant: "I have never applied for pardon. Having been illegally arrested, falsely accused, unfairly tried, and unjustly sentenced to the full severity of an unconstitutional law, I can only hope that future developments, and the subsidence of bitter passions, will lead to the restoration of my liberty as an act of JUSTICE, rather than of Executive clemency!"

When guilty men have served one year at hard labor, and have still five similar years hanging over their heads—do they publicly talk thus?

P. B. M.'S THIRD PAPER.

As the public is already exceedingly tired of this unprofitable discussion, and as I have no wish to do more than protect my own character from unfounded imputations, I shall not make any special criticism of Col. Means' publication, printed on Sunday last. I regret, however, that in his zeal to screen his chief, he should endeavor to excuse the reckless dragging of my name into the controversy, by intimating that it was in reply to a communication signed "Tar River." Unfortunately for this pretence, "Tar River" did not appear until the same morning with Col. Means' first chapter of Schenck ku klux "Defence," which proclaimed that he would vindicate fully every point of His Honor's record! Of course this involved the whole story, and could not have referred to "Tar River," which, by the way, would never have appeared had not Judge Schenck and Col. Means, both, written to the person who received one of my three letters—urging his (Schenck's) claims, etc. Furthermore, P. B. M., on Monday, before "Tar River" appeared, showed portions of Schenck's "Defence" to several gentlemen in Raleigh, one of whom advised and insisted that it be not published, he being a friend of mine, as well as of Mr. Schenck.

OTHER POINTS.

1. Col. Means might easily have learned why it was that "only three members of the Order dare visit me." The "confessors" and "traitors"—the class of men now so ready to furnish their friend, the Judge, with "affidavits," so-called—had forced many of my best friends to fly into exile; and these "P—k—ers," also, stood ready to swear away the liberty and reputation of any gentleman seen to show me attentions. Really, I cannot wonder at any man or following the example of Judge Schenck, and others, in taking care of themselves; it is no enviable fate to undergo two years, and longer, of physical torture, and then be pelted and wounded by private calumnies. And why should I have suffered the loss of six of the best years of my youth? I was out of the war—and might have remained out; and what had I to gain from the Klan? Not one thing! Except that like every other true citizen, I was interested in suppressing crime, checking negro turbulence, which threatened to repeat the horrors of St. Domingo on our soil; and in shielding our peerless women, who at that time were scarcely safe within their own doors.

1st. Judge Schenck lays much stress upon the summons of Amzi Smith; but did he not write and ask for that summons to be sent? It was on Senator Beck's receipt of Schenck's letter) dated three days after my "conviction," and one day after my sentence) that the summons was issued. He says he wrote because notified by a friend that a capias was to be issued; why, then, write to Mr. Beck asking to be summoned? Why not instruct his "friend" to notify him when wanted? Besides, Judge Schenck knew very well the committee could only report him "in contempt," and he could relieve himself of "contempt" by stating that he had never received any second summons after being "excused." Jos. L. Carson, F. N. Strudwick, and numbers of others were summoned, but declined to go, and were never molested.

2d. Col. Means thinks I ought not to use T. A. Hope's affidavit because Hope was a "confessor." True; but his character is as good as the RUSSELL-BOSTICS, and he is supported (impliedly) by Franklin Reeves and Wm. R. Fite—all three residing near the home of Judge Schenck, who, himself, corroborates their affidavits in some particulars. They may have sworn falsely about him; I don't know; perjury seems to have been common at that time.

3d. I was not at all misinformed with regard to Judge Schenck's applying to Col. Ike Young to intercede for him with Gov. Holden, during the Kirk war. Col. Young is now in Raleigh, and reaffirms all that I stated about Schenck, Holden, and Bond, except that Mr. Schenck may not have written to Holden; he sent verbal messages, to which Gov. Holden replied that he should make no arrests outside of the counties declared in insurrection.

I was in error in stating that Judge Schenck was "disbarred" at the time he volunteered to help the Revenuers out of their scrape; he had been disbarred, but the Radical Supreme Court had relieved him. This, however, is a most immaterial point, in no degree invalidating my statement that lawyer Schenck, who is now trumpeted as the young champion of resistance to the removal of cases from State to Federal Courts, actually volunteered his services as counsel in the first case of that kind in the State!

"But even admitting that Jewett and Cobb could have been further prosecuted in the State Court, and that Summerow ought to have been, but was not prosecuted at all, neither Judge Schenck nor any other Judge can be held responsible for the failure to prosecute any of these men. The Judge is not the prosecuting officer, and it is not his business or duty to follow defendants in State cases."

Does not the JUDGE control the business of the Court? Is he not sworn to see that the laws shall be faithfully executed?

Col. Means produced a note from John R. Erwin, Mecklenburg Clerk, stating that "there is no entry of 'case off;'" but that "on the back of the indictment is an endorsement, 'Off—Fall Term, 1874." This is a funny "pint!" Are not all clerks of courts under the direction of the Judge, and would any clerk dare to write "Off—(meaning the case is off the docket)—Fall Term, 1874," without authority from the Court? The memorandum on the indictment merely refers to the record of the Court, Case No. 25.

Col. Means is surprised that I can hear of but one speech made by his chief, and proceeds to assert: "In July, 1867, Judge Schenck replied to Judge Tourgee in a powerful speech in Lincolnton. In 1868 Judge Schenck was sub-elector for Seymour and Blair, and canvassed Catawba, Lincoln and Gaston." Now, how does he reconcile his statement with the Judge's sworn testimony before the Outrage Makers, on page 401? John Pool asked him; "You have refrained from having anything to do with politics for the last year or eighteen months?" Judge Schenck replied: "I had nothing to do with politics, from the close of the war to 1868: I went into the Presidential campaign. This last year I determined to take no part in politics at all. However, my friend, Mr. Bynum, invited me to meet him on the stump, and my friends goaded me a little, so that I met him" Question by Pool—"You had declined to be on the Executive Committee of the State?" Judge Schenck—"Yes, sir." Question—"Because you were no politician?" Judge Schenck—"No, sir; I never liked it, and have never succeeded very well, so far."

Again, in reference to his excuse for not voting for Shober because his authority as a member of the Congressional Committee had been disregarded, read on page 396 his declaration: "I was appointed a member of the committee for my district, but I declined to act; I declined to have anything to do in politics in the last year."

Perhaps there is an explanation for these things; I cannot understand them myself; but Judge Schenck is an able lawyer, and has the counsel of scores of his brethren; whereas I had no man's advice, or assistance, in the preparation of my articles.

FINIS.

In conclusion, I sincerely trust that I shall not again be forced to intrude upon the public. This assault upon me will ever be remembered as one of the most cruel episodes of my life. I am too true a Conservative to feel any pleasure in exposing a prominent member of my own party for the delectation of our enemies; and as for myself, those who know me best can best appreciate my feelings on being raked for all that I have borne and forborne by being freshly pounded in the crucible of public discussion, with all the influences and agencies that could be set at work, thrown in to re-vamp and vitalize the stale slanders of scallawags! But enough!

Re-affirming my gratitude for the kindness of friends, known and unknown, and the general and generous sympathy of the public, a manifested in numerous evidences, I remain, respectfully,

RANDOLPH A SHOTWELL.

Wilkesboro.

Wilkesboro Witness.

This is a village of about 250 inhabitants, situated in the beautiful valley of the Yadkin River. Near its banks is the county seat of Wilkes county. It has three stores, one academy, three churches—Methodist, Presbyterian, and Episcopalian; one printing office, and the most beautiful Court House square in the State. We have plenty of water power for mills, factories and machinery of all kinds. The climate is salubrious and healthy. The water is pure free-stone, sparkling springs gushing from the mountain sides, making it a desirable place in the summer season for pleasure and health seekers. The lands along the valley of the Yadkin, are noted for their fertility which lay contiguous to this place. Unfortunately we are not blessed with a Railroad, but have one in contemplation, besides Congress has ordered a survey of the noble old Yadkin and in all probability the Steamboats will in less than five years be plying between Wilmington and Wilkesboro. This undoubtedly is the garden spot of North Carolina. And all we need to make it one of the best countries in the world, is more energy among our our own people; and extending an invitation to emigrants from the North or anywhere. And in behalf of the good citizens of this county we cordially invite all parties wishing to change countries to come and see us.

A Sailor's Forethought.

The experienced mariner, before risking the perils of the sea, skillfully adjusts his cargo, and makes provision for every possible contingency, well knowing that when the storm comes, his ability will be taxed to the utmost in saving his vessel and crew. Yet the mariner on the sea of life makes no preparation to cope with the storms (disease) to which all are liable. No studious effort to keep the many organs in order, or regulate their functions. If the liver be sluggish, bowels constipated, head dizzy, dull, or aches, be "guesses it will wear off in a day or so," and does nothing to obtain relief, though knowing that one or two doses of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets will effect a radical cure, and that a bottle or two of his Golden Medical Discovery will effectually ward off all future attacks, by enriching and purifying the blood. Suppose a captain upon discovering that his vessel was too heavy on one side, shou'd "guess it would right itself in a day or so," and do nothing, could any one be blamed but himself, if in a storm his vessel foundered, and all perished? So people who carelessly and foolishly neglect the premonitory symptoms of disease can blame no one but themselves if an early death is the result. Reader, if you wish to "know thyself," and the hidden reefs and dangerous coasts upon which thousands have been shipwrecked, while navigating life's ocean, procure a copy of the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, an illustrated work of nearly one thousand pages. Over one hundred thousand copies already sold. Price, post-paid, $1.50. Address the author, Rev. R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N.Y.

A recent sensational dispatch from London to the New York Herald conveyed the startling intelligence that 3,000,000 bishops, presbyters, deacons and laymen of the Established Church of England had withdrawn from that communion and had entered the Church of Rome. It was also stated that such was the anxiety of the Latin Church to achieve this feat of proselytism that the married bishops, archbishops and presbyters were allowed to enter the Roman priesthood, retaining their wives, but only debarred from receiving confessions. Three millions of English Episcopalians constitute one-fourth the membership of that Church, and that numerous departure of itself is an absurdity, but the statement that the married prelates would be allowed to retain their wives, stamps the telegram as a fraud. On no point is the Latin Church more inexorable and uncompromising than upon the celibacy of the clergy; that is the celi beatitudo, or blessedness of heaven, the state of virginity.—So says the Courier-Journal.

At the Convention of the American Labor Reform League, recently held in New York, the Tribune says:

R. W. Hume the chairman, made a general attack upon the Young Men's Christian Association, which he denounced as worse than the Spanish Inquisition. He also denounced the law against circulating obscene literature through the mails; and he proceeded to advocate the doctrine of free love, and declared that Jesus Christ was a thorough Communist, and that his doctrines agreed with the principles of the League.

Unremitting application will induce disease unless the blood be kept constantly pure and rich. For all hard workers the remedy to keep the blood in the best condition is Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture.

THE Protestant Episcopal Convention of this State, for the current year, takes place in Wilmington to-day. A large attendance of clergy and laity is anticipated.

THE outlook in Europe is a little more peaceful to-day. It is stated that a basis of agreement for a final settlement of the eastern question before a Congress of the powers has at length been agreed upon. An outline of this reported basis is given in our telegraphic columns. It is most earnestly to be hoped that the pending questions will be settled peacefully. A general European war would be disastrous to the cotton interests of the South.

A NUMBER of Republican speakers of the North are coming South to take part in the canvass in the South this fall. Their object is to galvanize the party into new life, if possible. It is a hopeless undertaking, and it will be a waste of time and money for these orators to come. They had better stay at home. The Republican organization of the South, particularly in those States which it is purposed to canvass, is confessedly dead. And its only hope of resuscitation lies in the combination of its remains with disaffected Democrats who think more of themselves and their own individual advancement than they do of the success of the political principles they profess and the good of the country.

IF there really be danger of a communistic outbreak this summer, the exposures now being made of the commune, and the discussion of its principles and purposes now going on in the public prints, will, in all probability, avert the danger. Secret agencies that mean harm to the government or society, cannot exist under the strong light of a vigorous, watchful and healthy press. A thorough analysis of the elements which compose the American commune serves to show its innate weakness very clearly. The order is made up almost entirely of foreign born men. This is the case in New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis and San Francisco. So long as the society is confined to foreign elements, its existence need cause no serious apprehensions.

GEN. TODLEBEN, who has taken immediate command of the Russian army in Turkey, is one of the most remarkable military men of this age. He is the son of a shoemaker, and is now sixty years old. He was only a second lieutenant of engineers when the Crimean war began in 1854. The engineering science and skill displayed in his defense of Sebastopol won for him a great fame. Within the year in which he defended that city he passed from the lowest grade of rank to that of adjutant general of the army. Called back into active service last year, he won more laurels before Plevna. He is said to be the most popular of all the officers in the Russian army. His appointment to the chief command at this time is regarded as an ominous circumstance. It has been observed that whenever there is hard work to be done Gen. Todleben is sent to the front.

THE "man and brother" does not appear to fare well up North, just now. Mr. J. A. St. Andrews, the editor of the Farmville (Va) Mercury, who has recently visited the New England States, says that neither at Yale nor Harvard colleges did he see any colored students, nor was the African brother visible in the churches of the white people, nor could he trace the existence of any colored statesmen in the six New England Legislatures. A special dispatch, May 2, to the New York Times from Newburgh, in that State, shows that even on juries the "man and brother" is not tolerated. At a suit in Ulster county, N. Y., a jury of eleven white and one colored man was chosen, and a number of the jurors swore they would not serve, and demanded to know "what this country was a coming to when white men were asked to sit on a jury bench alongside of a "nigger?" The result was that the colored man had to leave before the jury could be organized. How the Republican journals of the North would howl if such discriminations existed in the South.

Examining the Title.

It has never before appeared certain that the title of Mr. Hayes to the Presidency could be investigated without disturbing the peace of the country. The one great objection to instituting a Congressional enquiry into this question has been the fear that the business interests of all sections would suffer by the agitation. Anything that would have the least tendency to depress trade or give uneasiness to the public mind was, in the present ill condition of the financial and commercial affairs of the nation, to be steadfastly resisted. Now, matters have so drifted that an investigation into the Presidential title could be had without the least bad effects flowing therefrom to the business interests of the country at large. In consequence of this, we see no objection to an examination being had into the Florida returns, where the confessions of McLin and Dennis leave no room to doubt that the returns were falsified so as to give the State to Mr. Hayes.

It is now stated that a plan for an investigation has been definitely determined upon by the Democrats in Congress, and that it does not seem to be opposed by the Republicans, and further, that the only question not settled is as to details. The confessions recently given by prominent members of the Returning Board of Florida, are to be used as the basis of the proceedings; to be corroborated by the affidavits obtained by Morton, the agent of Tilden, who has been working up the case. The affidavits, together with other evidences bearing on the subject, are now in the possession of Proctor Knott, chairman of the House judiciary committee, who it is said will move the investigation. He is the proper man to do it. If we recollect aright, this gallant Kentuckian led the vain opposition to the confirmation of the work of the Electoral Commission in March, 1877—a course in which he was supportd by only a handful of Representatives, and one Senator, all the rest of Congress voting to ratify the eight to seven decision.

The affidavits on which the case will rest, are said to contain details of dates, places, persons and circumstances as to the allegations of fraud made in the McLin and Dennis confessions. It is asserted that these affidavits are made by local supervisors and inspectors of elections in several Florida counties; that they recite minutely specific cases of fraud; that, moreover, it will appear from them that Noyes, Minister to France, was recognized and represented himself as the immediate agent of the President; that he had guilty knowledge of fraud, and that he said he had authority to speak for the President, and that he promised places which have since been given. The persons who claim to have seen these papers say that they are convinced that the case to be made is so strong that no one will be able to vote against the proposition.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Times, who seems to be well-posted, writes that it has not been settled in what way the subject will be brought before the House for action. There are two practicable ways. It can be done, first, upon a motion to suspend the rules. This motion cannot prevail except by a two-thirds vote. Second, as a privileged question, which requires only a majority vote. The question of privilege would be allegations looking to the impeachment of the President and asking for an inquiry into the truth of such allegations. Upon no other ground can the question of privilege be raised. The Democratic managers do not seem to be certain that they have the necessary two-thirds. They are less certain that it would be politic to present the question in its possible impeachment aspects, but "that it will be presented in some form there can be no doubt." If an investigation is ordered it will be because the Republicans encourage and permit it. They have strength enough, undoubtedly, to prevent it by filibustering, if not by main force. It is note-worthy that some of Mr. Hayes' friends themselves advise an investigation, claiming that it can bring no harm or any guilty knowledge of fraud to the President, and that it will be better to have the question settled. So long as some of the President's Republican friends take this view it is not to be expected that his Republican opponents will interfere to prevent an investigation.

The investigation then may take place. If it should it is interesting to enquire what would be the result of unseating Mr. Hayes. The Washington Post publishes an important double-headed editorial, touching Mr. Tilden's oath, the points of which we here indicate: According to one of the most cultivated legal minds in the House of Representatives, there need be no apprehension in the minds of the anti-Tilden Democrats that an investigation of the electoral frauds, even though it should result in unseating Hayes, could have the effect of installing the New York reformer in his stead. The eminent lawyer makes the following declaration: "Under all laws governing successions under constitutional forms a strict observance of these forms is requisite to a perfection of title. It is necessary that a President should take the oath on the fourth day of March, which, it is asserted, Tilden failed to do. His friends besought him to go through with the form of taking the oath to perfect his title. Tilden at first intended to take the oath in a public manner, but abandoned his design as soon as he learned of Grant's determination to arrest him on charge of treason and to throw him into Fortress Monroe, as an instigator of sedition and rebellion, upon his appearance at the Capitol for that purpose. That Grant was prepared for such action, and would have seized Tilden's person is well known to many of both parties, and that Tilden was restrained by his knowledge of such a peril is equally notorious in private circles. The consequence is that if Hayes and Wheeler should be deposed the succession would be vacant, and the House would proceed to elect, the same as if there had been no choice by the Electoral College, the presiding officer of the Senate discharging the duties of the Presidency simply ad interim between the deposition of Hayes and the election by the House.

General Ben Butler is understood to have suggested the identical plan here outlined, and he may be the lawyer referred to. It is generally believed, too, that Tilden did privately take the oath of office on March 4, in New York, and that it was administered by Justice Field, of the United States Supreme Court, brother of David Dudley Field. It is not difficult to see that the purpose of this article is to force anti-Tilden Democrats to vote for an investigation.

If an investigation can be accomplished without disturbing the peace of the country, or further depressing business, we repeat, by all means let the investigation proceed. That Mr. Hayes owes his seat to frauds of the most unblushing nature, we have never had the slightest doubt. We can see no possible objection to these iniquities being unearthed and recorded by an examination by Congress.

The Bivouac of the Dead.

The muffled drum's sad roll has beat
The soldier's last tattoo!
No more on life's parade shall meet
The brave and fallen few;
On fame's eternal camping ground
Their silent tents are spread,
And Glory guards, with solemn round,
The bivouac of the dead.

No rumor of the foe's advance
Now swells upon the wind,
No troubled thought at midnight haunts
Of loved ones left behind.
No vision of to-morrow's strife
The warrior's dread alarms,
No braying horn or screaming fife
At dawn shall call to arms.

Their shivered swords are red with rust,
Their plumed heads are bowed,
Their haughty banner trailed in dust
Is now their martial shroud;
And plenteous funeral tear have washed
The red stains from each brow,
And the proud forms by battle gashed
Are free from anguish now.

The neighing troop, the flashing blade,
The bugle's stirring blast;
The charge, the dreadful cannonade,
The din and shout are past
Nor War's wild note, nor Glory's peal,
Shall thrill with fierce delight
Those breasts that never more may feel
The rapture of the fight.

Rest on, embalmed and sainted dead!
Dear as the blood ye gave:
No impious footsteps here shall tread
The herbage of your grave:
Nor shall your glory be forgot
While fame her record keeps,
Or Honor points the hallowed spot,
Where Valor proudly sleeps.

Yon marble minstrel's voiceless tone
In deathless song shall tell,
When many a vanished year hath flown,
The story how ye fell:
Nor wreck, nor change, nor winter's blight,
Nor time's remorseless doom
an dim one ray of holy light
That gilds your glorious tomb.

STATE NEWS.

Mr. John C. Ramsey, a prominent merchant of Statesville, died on Wednesday last.

The Oxford Torchlight says that the work of surveying the railroad will begin immediately.

Mr. W. Williams, of Granville, on Monday, had his wrist shattered by the accidental discharge of his gun.

Wilkesboro Witness: A few days since an alarm of fire was given in the jail. The Sheriff, going in to extinguish it, left the door open, and a prisoner escaped.

Democratic meetings, both in Clay and Macon counties, have declared for Hon. W. N. H. Smith for Chief Justice and Judge Schenck for Associate Justice.

A correspondent of the Hillsboro Recorder brings forward Mr. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, who is so well and favorably known, as a suitable man to represent that district in the State Senate.

Newberne Nutshell: Two prisoners of the U. S. District court, to whom the Sheriff had been ordered to assign "comfortable quarters," made their escape from Craven county jail, Saturday night.

Monroe Express: The rust is making its appearance on the blade of the wheat in many localities of the county, and there is danger of much damage being done by it, especially to late wheat.

Lincolnton News: On Friday, the 17th of May, there will be a shooting match, tournament and ball in this place, for the benefit of the "Southern Stars." The prize will be a handsome goblet.

The Pee Dee Bee says a hail storm of unparalelled severity passed over portions of Richmond county, and the adjoining county of Marlboro, S. C. A hail stone was picked up measuring nine inches round, the shortest way. In places where the hail drifted it was from 15 to 18 inches deep. The damage was great.

Reidsville News: From present indications there will be sold on our market during the present year, not less than four or five million pounds of leaf tobacco. All of our tobacco factories have commenced work: this gives employment to at least six or eight hundred unoccupied hands. Our tobacco interest is in a much healthier condition than at any era in our past history.

What a Tottering Fabric

Is a system depleted of vitality and irregular in its functions. It is only judicious and prompt medicinal aid that can save it from a speedy and total collapse. The tonic and regulating properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters particularly adapt that benign medicine to revive physical vigor and reform those bodily irregularities which are a barrier to its permanent restoration. Biliousness and constipation are totally overcome by it, and the digestive activity and thorough assimilation which it promotes have the effect of increasing the vivifying and nourishing qualities of the blood. The Bitters are also an excellent detergent of the vital current, since they communicate a healthy stimulus to the bladder and kidneys, which are the most important channels for the escape of its impurities. Pure, agreeable, and of bodiless origin, thorough and prompt, but never violent in its action, the reasons for the transcendent popularity of this medicine are both cogent and appreciable. ap 29 6t

Church Music.

The finest music provided by any church in the country is to be heard in Sundays and holidays at St. Francis Xaviers in New York. Its organ and its choir are alike famous, and its services are crowded by both the religious and the critical. The credit of this superb preminence belongs to the organist, Professor Wm Berge music doctor. Who but a little while ago, ruptured an artery in his arm and had to abandon his profession until cured by Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia.

LEE'S PREPARED AGRICULTURAL LIME.

To The Cotton Growers of North Carolina.

The Commissioner of Agriculture having decided that I cannot have an Agency in your State for the sale of this cheap and valuable fertilizer, without paying a tax of $ 00—which I cannot do without materially advancing the price, I solicit your orders for it, which will be promptly filled on the following terms on board cars in Richmond:

$12 Per Ton Cash, or $15 Per TON for an approved acceptance on Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington, Petersburg, Norfolk, or Richmond, payable on the 1st of November next, or at 8 months from date.

I respectfully refer you to Messrs. J. J. Thomas, Raleigh; J. W. O'Neil, Clayton and others who sold it last spring, and to the various farmers who used it, who say it makes as much cotton as fertilizers costing 3 or 4 times as much. Address,

Robberry of a Store.

On Saturday night last during the raging storm of wind and rain, thunder and lightning, which broke over our city, some thieves entered the confectionery store of Mr. H. Fendt. The entrance was effected by breaking open the shutters of a window in the rear of the establishment. The sash of the window was then taken out entirely. The till was broke open and the drawer, with all its contents, some $40 in currency, carried off. The only other things taken were some oranges, lemons and cakes. After helping themselves to these the rogues made their exit through the front door on Fayetteville street.

Wake Criminal Court.

The next Term of this Court begins May 20th. A list of the jurors has already appeared in the NEWS. The dockets are pretty full, there being on the trial docket 46 cases, and 57 cases to go before the Grand Jury. There are four capital cases; one for rape, three for burglary. There are now twenty-nine prisoners in jail, to be tried at this term. It is probable that the session of the Court will be a lengthy one.

Out of his Habitat.

A reptilian curiosity in the shape of a horned frog, was captured on Halifax street yesterday by Dr. Geo. W. Graham. In appearance the creature somewhat resembles both a frog and lizard. On its head are a pair of horns one fourth inch long, while a kind of web that extend from its sides is fringed with small horns. These frogs are common in Texas, but are seldom seen here, except in alcohol. This one may be seen at the National.

St. John's Guild.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of St. John's Guild will be held at the Reading Room this (Wednesday) Evening at 8 o'clock.

The Board of Aldermen.

Pursuant to adjourment the old Board met yesterday at 10:30 A. M. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. The official returns of the elections held on Monday for Aldermen in the various wards were read. On motion the Board then adjourned, sine die,

At 12 M. The newly elected Board assembled. All the members were present. The following gentlemen compose the Board: A. B. Andrews, J. H. McAllister, J. M. Harris, Jno. C. Blake, P. C. Hardie, C. D. Osborn, P. C. Walker W. E Weaver J. W. Horton, W. B Hutchings, Robert Dobbin democrats: Stewart Ellison, William Mitchell, W. H. Martin, Norfleet Dunston, Jas. H. Jones, Albert Maguin, republicans. There are thus 11 Democrats, 6 Republicans; 13 whites, 4 colored.

Upon motion of Alderman Blake the name of Gen. B. C. Manly was placed in nomination fer the mayjoralty. Aderman Ellison then moved that he be elected by acclamation. The motion prevailed and he was thus elected unanimously, to serve for one year. Called on for a speech, His Honor returned thanks to the Board for his election as their head for another term, and pledged his best efforts and services to the city and the city's welfare. His remarks were brief but pertinent.

The Board then adjourned to meet this evening at 8:30.

The Late Election.

Comparing the returns of the late election in our city with that of 1877, we gather a few facts from figures in regard to the standing of the two political parties.

The Democratic candidates in the first Ward in 1877 received an average of 187 votes, this year they get an average of 138; in the second Ward the Republicans had an average of 241 votes, this year they only get 212; in the third Ward, in 1877 the Democratic average was 116, this year it is 97; in the fourth Ward, in 1877, the Republicans obtained an average of 193, this year they only get 163; in the fifth Ward in 1877 the Democratic average was 236, this year it is 242.

In the third Ward there was no contest, so the vote was light this year. In the first and fifth Wards the war raged and the parties polled their full strength. In both the second and fourth Wards the Republicans are in the ascendant, but the fall behind the average being much less.

County Commissioners.

The Board met at the Poor House yesterday, and spent the day in careful examination of that county institution. Besides the poor who are there domiciled and cared for, the county has to support a great number of out-door paupers at large expense. These are maintained out of the fund for relief.

The Board meets at the Court House to-day. They meet and confer with a gentleman from each township to agree upon a uniform scale of valuation of personal property in the county. Taxlist takers will also be appointed to-day.

Post-Office notes.

During the month of April the following new post-office were established in this State: Bringles Ferry, Davidson Co.; Owenville, Sampson; Gibsons Mills, Richmond; Bowie's Creek, Harnett; Bellville, Pender; Drowning Creek, Burke; Willow Branch, Gates; Miller's Creek, Wilkes; Garden Creek Haywood; Sonoma, Haywood; Alpine Surry; Ashland, Surry; Deavers, Transylvania; Dymond City, Martin; Harrison, Mecklinburg; Hutchinson's Store, Wake; Martin's Mills, Montgomery.

The office at Florence, Davie county, has been discontinued.

Chowan Baptist Association.

This association, one of the largest in the State, numbering some 12,000 members, meets at Shiloh, Camden county, on the 14th inst. The steamer Lota has been chartered, to leave Murfreesboro at 7 A. M., on Monday. On her way down, she will stop at all landings. On the return trip she will leave Shiloh Thursday evening at 5 o'clock.

Large numbers of visitors are expected to attend, and the gathering will be one of the largest ever held.

Penitentiary Recruits.

A deputy Sheriff of Anson county brought in yesterday five convicts, all sentenced for stealing. One sentenced to 10 years imprisonment the others for from 2 to 3 years each. Their names are Clark Liles, Remus Patterson, Washington Knott, Miles Williams and Legrand McNeill. Two of these men are considered desperate characters.

The Sunday School Pic-Nic.

The number of persons who will leave this morning for Kittrells', as participants in the excursion of Edenton street Methodist Sunday School, will doubtless be large. The attendance of teachers and scholars will be full. A pleasant Maying is expected, and we wish them all the happiest of times.

Notice to Teachers.

Applications will be received for the position of Principal of the Newbern Academy for the academic year, beginning September 30th, 1878.

School rooms, fuel and $600 per annum, in addition to the proceeds arising from tuition, will be offered for the services of a suitable Principal.

Mosely to the Front.

Has opened at Carmer's old stand a first class Ice Cream and Soda Water Saloon. Shall be pleased to see old friends and customers and as many new ones who feel disposed to encourage an institution very much needed in the City of Oaks. All cordially invited to call. Families supplied at short notice. Prices to suit the times.

At MOSELY'S. *

Fly Fans.

Mr. J. C. Brewster has just received a large supply of Fly Fans. Every one warranted an indispensible article for the dining room and sick chamber. No family should be without a fan. Will be sold on trial. *

Something of interest to the Farmers.

We notice among those dealing in Agricultural Implements, Mr. W. A. Myatt, of this city, has a very large stock of plows and points of all descriptions, which he says are going more rapidly this season than ever before. This speaks well for the farming interest. He makes a specialty of the Wilson Cotton Plow, and offers the points cheaper than ever sold before. Farmers will do well to see him when in need of such things. *

The University.

Eighteen counties have availed themselves of the privilege of appointing students to the University free of charge. To induce the others if possible to act, President Battle has sent blank forms of appointment to the Board of County Commissioners, with the following explanation:

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., May 7th 1878.

To the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of the County of .....

The attention of your Board is called to the provisions of Section 2, Capter II, of an Act of the General Assembly, ratified February 11th, 1867, entitled "An Act to transfer the Land Scrip given by the United States to the State of North Carolina," authorizing each County to send a student to the Univerity, free of charges for tuition and room rent, on the following conditions:

1st. That he be a native of the State.

2d. That he be a resident of the County by which he is sent.

3d. That he be of good moral character.

4th. That he be of good capacity for usefulness.

5th. That he be without the requisite means to defray the necessary expenses of education.

6th. That he be prepared for admission into one of the classes of the University.

It will be noticed that the appointee must be prepared to defray all expenses except tuition and room rent.

It is earnestly requested that care shall be taken to appoint no one who is really able to pay all expenses, as otherwise he may take the place of one better entitled under the law.

If any meritorious young man shall desire admission into the University, who cannot pay his tuition and room rent, and is unable to obtain to County appointment, he should make application for admission directly to the Faculty, who will be, as heretofore, liberal as the means of the University will allow.

By Section 4 of said Act, it will be seen that those wishing to study the branches related to Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, may be admitted into the University without standing an examination in Latin and Greek. Such persons shall sustain an approved examination in Arithmetic, Georgraphy and Grammer.

It is very important that students shall join the University of the beginning of the first session, viz.: the last Thursday in August of each year; but the Faculty will admit them at later periods if they are properly qualified.

Very respectfully,
KEMP P. BATTLE, President.

DRY GOODS.

Good Morning.

The latest news by Telephone, the great American through line, no time to stop at way stations.

New Goods Received at

GREECH'S

BY EVERY TRAIN.

I am now receiving my Spring Stock bought within the last ten days in a depressed market after the rush of business was over and goods had fallen. In fact I bought them at hard pan and panic prices, and can safely say that never in the history of the dry goods business have I been better prepared to sell good so uniformly cheap. And so as to give my customers a bird's eye view, I will quote a few prices:

50,000 Yards

NEW AND HANDSOME

SPRING PRINTS,

From 5 to 7 cents.

10,000 Yards New and handsome

PRINTED UNION LAWNS,

At 10 cents, worth 15 cents;

10,000 YARDS PRINTED CORDED LAWNS at 10 cents, cheap at 15 cents;

5,000 yards Solid French Grenadine at 7¾ cents, cost 20 cents to import;

5,000 yards Poplin Lustres, new and handsome shades, at 5 cents, worth 15 cents.

New and handsome styles of finer Dress Goods at correspondingly low prices. Three yards White Corded Pique for 30 cents, and one yard thrown in extra; 3 pair White Hose for 25 cents, and one pair thrown in extra; Ladies Embroidered Collars at 5 cents each, ought to bring 15 cents; plain Collars, 3 for 10 cents, and one thrown in extra; Ladies Cloth Gaiters, to arrive in a few days, at 50 cents. These prices ought to unwind the the string from around the panic stricken purses, and come to Greech's.
